

Steps to Taking a Soil Sample

1. Only go down about 4 inches deep to get the sample.
2. Do not include any thatch in the sample (approximately top 1" of ground).
3. If the area is large, take representative samples from several spots in the area and mix them together.
4. Pull the final sample from that entire mixture.